2004 was another busy year for the Fire Department between training and responding to emergencies. The number of calls decreased slightly last year after two straight years of increases.

Over the past few years, the emergency services have been faced with many challenges. The dedicated men and women of the Dalton Fire Department have met these challenges while moving forward, adapting to advancements in equipment and technology.

I want to thank the officers and members who give so much of their time to provide the citizens of Dalton with emergency service 24 hours a day, seven days a week. I would also like to thank the other departments of the town as well as the residents for their continued support and cooperation.
